16 ORDER STAYING LITIGATION
17 PENDING DECISION BY MDL
18 JUDICIAL PANEL

19 At a hearing held on November 30, 2012, the Court discussed with the parties whether there
20 should be a stay in the above-referenced lawsuits in light of Bristol-Myers and Sanofi's motion to 21 transfer and consolidate with the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (which was filed on 22 October 15, 2012). See Docket No. 19 (notice). Having considered the parties' positions, as 23 articulated in their joint case management statement and at the hearing, the Court concludes that a 24 stay is warranted. There is a reasonable likelihood that issues currently before this Court (e.g., 25 fraudulent joinder, CAFA jurisdiction, and/or procedural misjoinder) will arise in other Plavix cases
26 filed in other district courts. Moreover, Plaintiffs have not adequately established that they would be 27 prejudiced by any delay resulting from a stay, particularly where the stay is likely to be brief in length. See Docket No. 24 (CMC St. at 4) (stating Defendants' best estimate that the panel hearing will take place on January 31, 2013).
28

Accordingly, the Court hereby STAYS the litigation in each of the above-referenced actions pending a decision by the MDL Judicial Panel on the motion to transfer and consolidate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: December 3, 2012

EDWARD M. CHEN
United States District Judge
